

Buyer/ Purchasing Support (f/m)

Looking for job in an international company?

Do you want to start a great career?

Become part of the company which gets
the world together!

Deutsche Post DHL is the leading mail and logistics service provider operating in over 220 countries and territories.

Join our team and discover how an international network focused on service, quality and sustainability connects people
and improves lives.

Deutsche Post

International purchasing team in Ostrava and Prague (Czech Republic) is looking for new colleagues with excellent English and Finnish skills to support our purchasing activities.

As a Buyer / Purchasing support you will process purchase needs, ask for suppliers offers and create purchase orders in English and Finnish on a daily basis and we will be happy to teach you that!

Our main target is high quality, excellent service and a well done job with a support and cooperation with each other.

Make a decision and be part of the an international and friendly environment!

Your profile

- High school/University degree
- Exposure to working with international teams
- Excellent analytic skills and focused on details
- Excellent communication, organization, presentation, negotiation and planning skills
- Flexibility, integrity and positive attitude
- Excellent English and Finnish skills (written and oral), Czech language is not required

Your benefit

If you decide to join our team you will be working in a dynamic and international environment with lots of excellent learning about our different business markets and Purchasing best practices, that will lead into great future career opportunities.

Your contact and registration

If you wish to find out more about this role please visit our website www.dphl.jobs.com or please contact Petra Novakova: petra.novakova@dhl.com

We are looking forward to your application.

CONNECTING PEOPLE. IMPROVING LIVES.