

Colloquium on Czech Lappologist Václav Marek (1908–1994)

organized by the Section of Finnish Studies
(Dept. of Germanic Studies), Faculty of Arts,
Charles University

on Monday, May 6, 2019

at Skautský institut na Staromáku (Staroměstské náměstí 1/4, Prague 1)

in the room Sál Minuta

PROGRAM

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 9h00–9h15 | Michal Kovář (Charles University): Opening |
| 9h15–10h00 | Håkan RYDVING (University of Bergen): Václav Marek's approach to indigenous Sami religion |
| 10h00–10h45 | Kristin AASBØ & Maja ATTERSTIG (Preus Museum & National Library of Norway): Marek as photographer: Pictures from Susendalen, Norway 1933–1948 |
| 10h45–11h00 | Coffee break |
| 11h00–11h45 | Zdeněk HOJDA (Charles University): Was Václav Marek auch Historiker von Lappland? |
| 11h45–12h30 | Bohumil FOŘT (Masaryk University): Few Remarks on Václav Marek's Trilogy |
| 12h30–13h15 | Michal KOVÁŘ: What has remained untold on Václav Marek and his work |